A day in the life of a never ending war the killing still continues for more than fifty years before by the time the war has ended a new one's just begun modern day is just the same no war is ever one you'd think we'd learn our lesson but it's so plain to see same old fate with a brand new date chalk up the casualties

[Chorus:]
as history repeats
tuesday may 18 1993
how many millions died

by 1945 they claimed never again but the nightmare's still alive

[Chorus]

how many lives were lost by the nazi holocaust see history reappear ethnic cleansing's here

[Chorus]

commoners kill eachother anotyher racial riot ethnic cleansing is allright as long as it's kept quiet the gods have called upon us to kill the hethen kind The holocaust never happened except to the jews it left behind ignorance has triumphed so its off to war again color and culture we're all still fucking men fashionable fascist fucks war is just for profit it's all the same to them they'll send over out children and fuck us once again

[Chorus]
