

The Villain

Austra

You say I'm not afraid but I linger.
The pleasure's still the same, she gets sicker.

I'll break your heart if I can't stay
It is more than I might be safe to play.

It's hidden in the clouds where I can see
How easily my mind could just break free.

Arise sweet demon and have your say.
I deserve nothing, but fortune's way.
Arise sweet demon and have your say.
I'll break your heart, but I can't stay.

Tenderly my garden grows there.
Carefully, I'll care and wait there.
I can't be sure this round will solve it.
