

I Lost My Mind in America

Autograph

You crash and burn and still you never learn
You know your number's coming up
You want some rules so you can break them
You take your chances with your luck

I lost my mind in America
I'll take my chances so I can tly
I'm so alive in America
I'll take all the blessings that I can find

You get away with lots of nonsense
But you don't like to drop the ball
You take a deep breath and move forward
You laugh it off until you fall

I lost my mind in America
I'll take my chances so I can fly
I'm so alive in America
I'll take all the blessings that I can find

I lost my mind, but found myself
I got to heaven straight from hell
I lost it all but found a way
I'll take my chances everyday
You got it all no time to waste
You win the game to get the taste
You count your blessings every time
But you can always lose your mind

Yeah-ah

I lost my mind in America
I'll take my chances so I can fly
I'm so alive in America
I'll take all the blessings that I can find

I lost my mind in America
I'll take my chances so I can fly
I'm so alive in America
I'll take all the blessings that I can find
