

The Bouncing Wall

Autolux

They put you down when you feel weak
They burn your house down Too
They said like that you can't Speak
So could you
Put up your dukes Defended it

She become someone
That how it goes
Then she begin to run
See how she froze

I saw you, You know nothing
I feeling nothing Your are not here
I'm free the wall is bouncing
The lights are green
I am empty, Your empty

And She become someone
That how it goes
Then she begin to run
See how she froze
