

Scream Until You Wake

Avatar

Oh, what are waves to the desert?
What's your name to a road long gone?
Who am I to be punished?
Who am I at all?

What are songs to the beaten?
And just what are you waiting for?
Why is everyone staring?
Why are you staring?
Can you hear me?

Say we'll be okay
Kiss me where I break
Echoes of our voices fading
We were a mistake

Say we'll be okay
Bend until I break
Scream until the walls collapse
Scream until you wake

Oh, what's the time of departure?
What are we even leaving for?
How can I make you see me?
How are we alive?

What's the way back to Eden?
And just what have they left for us?
Where are all the lost children?
Where are you going?
Can you take me?

Say we'll be okay
Kiss me where I break
Echoes of our voices fading
We were a mistake

Say we'll be okay
Bend until I break
Scream until the walls collapse
Scream until you wake

Free at last, forever and ever
Born outcast to no one and never heard again
You can't get hurt again
We'll meet again
See you again, see you again
Will you remember?

Say we'll be okay
Kiss me where I break
Echoes of our voices fading
We were a mistake

Say we'll be okay
Bend until I break
Scream until the walls collapse

Scream until you wake
