

Here To Stay

Avery Watts

I am a ghost
The very thing that all fear the most
Not a man of flesh and blood (No!)
An apparition
A vision with no form
A mind inside the eye of a cyclone
I, encapsulating all space and time
Indefinably infinite (Right!)
All coalescing together we make scores
A one chord fermata forevermore

Through all the wind and the rain
We remain
No matter the hurt or the pain
We don't wane
Whether weak or strong
We soldier on
Into the clear
Void of fear

We're (We're)
Here (Here)
No, we're not going away (Now everybody say)
We're (We're)
We're here to stay

Obey or take the reins
Make your choice
Raise stakes and wake your voice
Though take heed, every breath that you breathe will sow the seeds of the legacy that you will leave
We hold the keys to possibility
See, nothing can dim the light that we shine when our deeds will echo for all time
