

Catalyst

Aviators

Under the shadow of the chosen
They only know the absolute
Enemies
Born to prey upon the broken
In refusal of the truth

I am the catalyst awakened
I am the reason they're afraid
Somebody has to keep on trying
Our only hope is far away
So in a world of silent people
We dared to make a sound
Sometimes the fire has to take you
For you to burn them to the ground

For a thief but not a soldier
Comes a chance to set them back
If I can
I will strive to leave an ember
For the fires of the attack

I am the catalyst awakened
I am the reason they're afraid
Somebody has to keep on trying
Our only hope is far away
So in a world of silent people
We dared to make a sound
Sometimes the fire has to take you
For you to burn them to the ground

I don't know myself
Better than I know my purpose
Chances of success
Going down, I'm feeling nervous
Holding on for what?
Maybe faith, but it feels useless
One last shot for hope
Steal the key to kill the ruthless
Does it matter at all?
Does it matter at all, will we ever win?

Will we ever win?

Just a soldier on the ground
I will burn them
I will burn them down
Distant lights and distant sounds
I will burn them
I will burn them down

I am the catalyst awakened
I am the reason they're afraid
Somebody has to keep on trying
Our only hope is far away
So in a world of silent people
We dared to make a sound
Sometimes the fire has to take you

For you to burn them to the ground

I am the catalyst awakened
I am the reason they're afraid
Somebody has to keep on trying
Our only hope is far away
So in a world of silent people
We dared to make a sound
Sometimes the fire has to take you
For you to burn them to the ground

Just a soldier on the ground
I will burn them
I will burn them down
