

Carving Flowers

Avion Roe

When you lie
Your line of sight
I feel is compromised
But I, I feel alright
I feel alive
But I feel denied
And I'm holding on to every still frame still in sight

And I'll hold on
(When I'm falling away)
I'll hold on
(I'll remember when)

All the world I feel is ours
I'll never let you reminisce of me
In memory
Where all the fear will start to fall
If ever you could live in this with me
This memory

And I'm in a place and time
And I'm carving flowers into glass on every side
Fall in the light
Let your life decide
And light a fire in the wind
And turn back time

And I'll hold on
(When I'm falling away)
I'll hold on
(I'll remember when)

All the world I feel is ours
I'll never let you reminisce of me
In memory
Where all the fear will start to fall
If ever you could live in this with me
This memory

And where do I begin to fall apart
And where do I begin to heal my heart
Tear apart, tear apart
And where do I begin to heal my heart

All the world I feel is ours
I'll never let you reminisce of me
In memory
Where all the fear will start to fall
If ever you could live in this with me
This memory
