

Running the Gauntlet

Axe

Running the gauntlet from player to star
Someday soon they'll know who you are
Never in laughter but always in jest
Take a vacation you need the rest
Ten thousand years could never make me
Change my mind
There's something out there
I've just gotta find
Seldom a real one but always a kiss
Sometimes a joker but never a miss
Living in sorrow but feeling no pain
Comes to relieve you but never the same
Ten thousand years could never make me
Change my mind
There's something out there
I've just gotta find
