

Higher Level

Axelle Red

They say if Africa's asleep they are to blame
They rape 'n chop like creeps
But our creeps we coul easily chip 'n tag
Still wrap our kids in garbage bags

While the war keeps tagging my sisters
As "whore" they have to die from their blisters
War whores glow on tv
Their diamonds on each ear

I have to keep in
(or my friends say there she goes again, but it 's difficult when you wanna)
Let it out
(why don't you start writing, I did!)
And then don't be surprised if you find
Me at night in the streets
And I shout

I wanna be proud
Proud of humanity
Scream it out loud
How proud I would be
Get the higher level
Don' t worship the devil
I would be proud of humanity

Still shocked, stuck in the holocaust
Don't ask who did we vote for

We change the subject to that continent so deprived
It 's why we dump them food and advice

Oh we 're so wise invented anti rape belts
Keep it cheap, with less than a dollar to spend

To consume what we 've been taught
Our daily fuel and happy thoughts

I have to keep in
(or my friends say there she goes again, but it 's difficult when you wanna)
Let it out
(why don't you start writing, I did!)
And then don't be surprised if you find
Me at night in the streets
(in my nihtgown)
And I shout

I wanna be proud
Proud of humanity
Scream it out loud
How proud I would be
Get the higher level
Don' t worship the devil
I would be proud of humanity

But to be allowed to shout
How proud I would be

I guess I'll have to confess that part of this mess
Is me

Higher level
Proud of humanity
Higher level
