

I Had a Dream

Axelle Red

last night I had this dream I saw people from all different places and they gathered together and since they've been loving each other

now I hope now I pray
that a change is to come today
oh this war I can't stand it no more
eradicate all this hate
share our gods our land we could be friends
no I ain't gonna stand it no more
no no

I had this dream
this life is not what it seems

I imagined no one poor
no more hunger on this earth
everyone a descent piece of this big desert
and if a child has to come
let it not so soon be gone can we not all have fun and age this should not be some kind of a privilege oh why we always escalate

have access
to our land
non-violent
those who are
capable of love
and tolerant
we refuse
all abuse
especially those against
our most innocents
those who rape
will not escape

oh this war all this hate
we suffocate
no more
brutality
cruelty
liberty
honesty
equality
amnesty
change mentality
sensitivity
and you cannot take this away from me for I had this dream
If only you'd had seen
the sun would shine so bright
it must have been right
j'ai fait un rêve
enfin le soleil se lève
one day the sun will shine
