

Everything I Have to Give

Aynsley Lister

Can't you see now woman
How much it is you're putting on me
I do my best to keep my cool
But right now I can hardly breathe
Gotta pull it all together
Every single bit
Move it up a gear and
Give everything I have to give

Can't you see now honey
That I'm running outta time
Wearing me into the ground
I'm about to lose my mind
Falling apart at the seams, well I
I have to admit
Don't know if I can take it, 'cause I
Gave everything I have to give
Everything I have to give
Oh yeah

Believe me I'm trying
But I'm hanging by a thread
There's no denying
I'm about to lose my head
Oh yeah

Well did you know baby
I'm waking up in the midst of night
Messing me up altogether
Worrying me all the time
I ain't got much left at all
Almost burnt down to the wick
Given everything I have to give
Everything I have to give, yeah
