

Chameleon

Ayria

I'm just staring at the wall
I don't know where to go from here
The past intolerable
The future not so clear

It's all been said and done
Now I'll be anything you want me to
'Cause now I just don't know
I've lost myself

Chameleon, chameleon
Chameleon, chameleon

I still don't know what I want
But did I give it all I had?
'Cause you were disappointed
Or maybe that's my own reflection

I want to make you proud
But all I want is just out of my reach
And I don't like myself
Wanna be someone else

Chameleon, chameleon
Chameleon, chameleon

I used to have so many dreams
But now I fear that I'm just settling
I'm blending into the walls
Trying to be all things to everyone

Chameleon, chameleon
Chameleon, chameleon
Chameleon, chameleon
Chameleon, chameleon
Chameleon
