

Three Months

Ayria

I should have known you'd let me down
I know your kind and how easy it was
To shut me out
Maybe it meant nothing to you
It meant the world to me
But I'm a sucker for things
Shiny and new

Maybe you miss me
I don't know
I turned around to find
That you're not the one
I used to know
Feels like I'm standing still
As you move on
But I've never been the type
To just follow along

Two months
I am almost over you
I'm a firm believer
That I can stop these thoughts of you
I'm a big daydreamer
You've found somebody else
I'm a firm believer
I've learned this lesson well
Yeah, I'm a big daydreamer

I hung on to your words too long
I must admit the power you had over me
Was quite strong
I wanted everything you had to show
But I can't be tamed like the others
I'm told

Two months
I am almost over you
I'm a firm believer
That I can stop these thoughts of you
I'm a big daydreamer
You've found somebody else
I'm a firm believer
I've learned this lesson well
Yeah, I'm a big daydreamer

It gets easier than this
I swear
I can't see it from here
I wish I'd used my voice with you
I never felt I had the choice
You tried to promise me a lie
Your promise is a lie
But now we just don't speak
I'm out of reach
Now there's just noise
Confusing
Lots of toys to pass the time

Distractions from you

Two months
I am almost over you
I'm a firm believer
That I can stop these thoughts of you
I'm a big daydreamer
I'm a firm believer
I'm a firm believer
I'm a big daydreamer
