

Into the Nameless Night

Azarath

Satan walk with me through the woods of time
For I hold the key--the word that kills the light!
Stunned by the wine of the whorish squalor
Fearless, falling into the nameless night

The inner thirst surges with power of will
As the seed in darkness awakens my spring

Sathanas transform
Order into chaos!
Ideas and forms of the dying aeon
The gates of Azoth burn--profoundness revealed
In the ritual synthesis of black flame!

Across the desert land
Across the angelic abyss
Beyond the black horizon
Into the second death

Face the desirous serpent from the dark
The deadliest evil power
The soulless storm of the night
The dweller of the abyss!
Choronzon!

Hallucinations' storm
Of dissolution and insanity
The soul tainted by the mighty devil's voice
Trammeled by thwarting chains of Choronzon!

Entropy seed is sown
False ego-tower is rising up
Trapped in eternal walls of sleep
Trammeled by thwarting chains of Choronzon!

Derailed from the path towards the ascension
By his madness, fever, and destruction
Distortion, infection, death in hell
All matter turns into dust

Its name is chaos and magnificent darkness
