

I Need A Woman

Bad Boys Blue

How deep is your love?
How sweet is your love tonight?
Tonight you can make me
Believe in paradise
So give me your heart
And give me your arms to warm me
This will be a love
Lasting for all of the time
How deep is your love?

I need a woman
A woman to run to
Someone who cares in the night
To hold me tight
Oh, I need a woman
A woman to talk to
Someone who's near by my side
For all of my life
I need a woman

So light up my nights
And light up my days
With your love
I promise to give you
Everything I can
Lay back in my arms
For heaven has just begun now
And heaven is living
Deep inside our hearts

I need a woman
A woman to run to
Someone who cares in the night
To hold me tight
Oh, I need a woman
A woman to talk to
Someone who's near by my side
For all of my life
I need a woman
