

Howling at the Sun

Bad Suns

Got what I need
I took myself for granted
Caught up to speed
Above these dreams I planted
We can fly
So much faster than we run
Howling at the sun

Invisible until I want to be
I'm miserable on a beautiful day

A stone's throw
You know
I'm right below your window
A stone's throw
You know
I'm right below your window

Got what I need
I took myself for granted
Caught up to speed
Above these dreams I planted
We can fly
So much faster than we run
Howling at the sun

Oooh, ahh
Oooh, ahh

So spiritual you used to be
So cynical in every obvious way

A stone's throw
You know
I'm right below your window
A stone's throw
You know
I'm right below your window

Oh my, my
It all goes by
Something that you said last night

Got what I need
I took myself for granted
Caught up to speed
Above these dreams I planted
We can fly
So much faster than we run
Howling at the sun
