

Life Was Easier When I Only Cared About Me

Bad Suns

Strolling the streets in this ghost of a town
And my future lookin' bleak, my head feels sound, yeah
As I lost signal on the train underground
And my thoughts came flooding in, I started to drown, yeah

You caught me by surprise, changed my destination
Oh yeah
Kaleidoscopic eyes forming constellations, yeah

I had no reason to breathe
Until you knocked the wind out of me
I had no light I could see
Until your radiance blinding me
I was spinning around and around in an ocean of grief
Your ladder came down to the sea
I hope the pain never ends, your love is so bittersweet
Life was easier when I only cared about me

When I only cared about me
When I only cared about me

Missing the nights when my friends were around
We start going unsteady, cruel merry-go-'round, yeah
Lit my own fuse, I could now blow it out
I was strapped to a rocket aimed right at the ground, then

You caught me by surprise, changed my destination
Oh yeah
Kaleidoscopic eyes forming constellations, yeah

I had no reason to breathe
Until you knocked the wind out of me
I had no light I could see
Until your radiance blinding me
I was spinning around and around in an ocean of grief
Your ladder came down to the sea
I hope the pain never ends, your love is so bittersweet
Life was easier when I only cared about me

When I only cared about me
When I only cared about me
Ooh, ah
Life was easier when I only cared about me

Ha-mm
Ha

No reason to breathe
No light I could see
No reason to breathe
No light I could see
No reason to breathe
I had no light I could see

I had no reason to breathe
Until you knocked the wind out of me
I had no light I could see

Until your radiance blinding me
I was spinning around and around in an ocean of grief
Your ladder came down to the sea
I hope the pain never ends, your love is so bittersweet
Life was easier when I only cared about me

When I only cared about me
When I only cared about me
Ooh, ah
Life was easier when I only cared about me
When I only cared about me, oh-oh
I hope the pain never ends, your love is so bittersweet
Life was easier when I only cared about me
