

Separate Seas

Bad Suns

A train bleeds through apartment walls
Your eyes are wide, as I recall
Tonight, no chance for sleep
Homesick lovers
Locked out of a dream

Leave the speaker on
And stay with me
I want every breath you breathe
Swimming separate seas
This world has brought me to my knees
Leave the speaker on
And stay

Stay forever
Say whatever words you have to say
Stay forever
Stay whatever weather comes our way
In the morning
In the evening
If I'm leaving
My love's here to stay
Forever

I caught a plane to Miami
To catch a glimpse of you and me
A California sun sinks into the sea
Emerges free to the east

Leave the speaker on
And stay with me
I want every breath you breathe
Swimming separate seas
This world has brought me to my knees
Leave the speaker on
And stay

Stay forever
Say whatever words you have to say
Stay forever
Stay whatever weather comes our way
In the morning
In the evening
If I'm leaving
My love's here to stay
Forever

I'll find my way
I'll find the place
I'll find the time
I'll climb my way
To your embrace
And peace of mind

Leave the speaker on
And stay with me

Swimming separate seas
This world has brought me to my knees
Leave the speaker on
And stay

Stay forever
Say whatever words you have to say
Stay forever
Stay whatever weather comes our way
In the evening
If I'm leaving
My love's here to stay
Forever

Stay forever
Say whatever words you have to say
Stay forever

I'll find my way
I'll find the place
I'll climb my way
To your embrace
