

Burn It Down

Bag of Toys

What makes you a better man?
What makes you a better man than that old man sitting in the park Beggin' for your change cuz that's all he's got What makes you a better person?
What makes you a better person than that same man 30 years ago
He's got the perfect life and a perfect home

Looking back you see, but don't believe me...
Man, we're all the same as anyone can see

Ref: So, go (a)head and burn it down go head and light it up Burn that down got that wall that separate us all oh...oh, oh, oh
Burn down that thinking/ man you got me drinking?
It's a mighty long way to get back where you're kickin' it back home

What make you a lesser woman?
What makes you a lesser woman than that pretty girl in the magazine
Anorexic, superficial, coked up queen
What makes you a lesser soul than?
What makes you a lesser soul than that, young, man, of cloth, spent his whole damn life trying to make stuff up

Looking back you see, but don't believe me...
Man, we're all the same as anyone can see

(SOLO AREA)

Hey, oh, whatchya gonna do
I'm gonna get a oneway ticket and i'll send you back to school
Down, line, take it every time
Cuz your going, but now knowing what your doing with your life
Enter/tain me is all you ever say
Why don't you drop another drink until you slip on your way
Cuz exist...resist...persist...exist
I said now oh....

Ref:

OH...
