

Matter

Baio

When I wake up (yeah)
I need you by my side
My lonesome cells have realized
If I never share that thought
It's wrong because I ought
To tell you how I feel

Sometimes I say that it doesn't matter
When it means the world to me
I need you to believe

I was feeling heavy feelings
That I didn't wanna say
So I wrote 'em in a letter and threw that away

Sometimes I say that it doesn't matter
When it means the world to me
I need you to believe
