Ain't No Cure

Bananarama

The story's the same Only the names have been changed When he broke your heart you said You'll never love again

But you'll be back for more And you'll get hurt Just like before

Cos' there ain't no cure for love Didn't they tell you
There ain't no remedy
They can sell you
Joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was

Don't think it over It's only just begun Learning to love again Is half the battle won

But don't believe They'll ever be Immunity

Cos' there ain't no cure for love Didn't they tell you
There ain't no remedy
They can sell you
Joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was

Cos' there ain't no cure for love Didn't they tell you
There ain't no remedy
They can sell you
Joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was

But you'll be back for more And you'll get hurt Just like before

Cos' there ain't no cure for love Didn't they tell you
There ain't no remedy
They can sell you
Joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was
