

Extraordinary

Bananarama

Got a handful of dreams (yeah that's all he left me)
And I always believe now (life is not how it seems)
All that glitters for me is gold
Always another story to be told
Uh oh uh oh just let it go

[Chorus:]

Hey baby won't you take a ride with me
To the other side
I got a feeling you might be right for me
You make me feel alive
I need someone very
Extraordinary
In this ordinary life
Uh oh uh oh just let It go

Got my sights set on you (don't you keep me waiting)
And I believe that it's true now (come on make your move)
Destiny makes up her own mind (destiny is calling to you)
So I leave my history behind
Uh oh uh oh just let it go

[Chorus]

Extraordinary (8x)

[Chorus]

Extraordinary
In this ordinary life
Extraordinary
In this ordinary life
Uh oh uh oh just let it go
