

The Thrill Is Gone

Barbara Mandrell

The thrill is gone
The thrill is gone away
The thrill is gone, baby
The thrill is gone away
Well, you know you done me wrong, baby
But you'll be sorry someday

The thrill is gone
It's gone away from me
The thrill is gone
It's gone away from me
Although I'll still live on
You know so lonely I'll be

The thrill is gone
It's gone away for good
The thrill is gone, baby
It's gone away for good
Some day I'll be over it all
Just like I know a good woman should

You know I'm free
Free from your spell
I'm free, baby
Free from your spell
And now that it's all over
All I can do is wish you well

The thrill is gone
The thrill is gone away
The thrill is gone
The thrill is gone away
Well you know you done me wrong, baby
But you'll be sorry some day
