Fall for Me

Barcelona

I'm a basic man
I'm a savage thing
What I've done amounts to more than I can say
I'm a basic man
I'm not royalty
But I got fucked up and made myself a king

Oh baby
Go where you want, hold who you wanna love
Love who you want to love
Oh baby
Go where you want, hold who you wanna love
Love who you want to love

This is just emotion
This is fantasy
Why'd you fall for me?
I won't make it better
I will only break your heart
Why'd you fall for me?

I'm a basic man
I like finer things
I would spend it all if I only had the means
I'm a basic man
I like you for me
Ooh, but what I want is never what I need

Oh baby
Go where you want, hold who you wanna love
Love who you want to love
Oh baby
Go where you want, hold who you wanna love
Love who you want to love

This is just emotion
This is fantasy
I will only break your heart
Why'd you fall for me?
I won't make it better
Darling, wait and see
I will only break your heart
Why'd you fall for me?

This is just emotion
This is fantasy
I will only break your heart
Why'd you fall for me?
I won't make it better
Darling, wait and see
I will only break your heart
Why'd you fall for me?

Did you find the keys, the keys to my heart?
Did you find the keys, the keys to my heart?
(Why'd you fall for me?)
If you're looking for a way, a way to restart

You don't want the keys to my heart
