Curious

Barenaked Ladies

If I climb a tree just to see what I see
Does that make me curious?

If I make a point of just cruising a joint
Would that make me curious?

And if it's profound this just lookin' around Well, then gee whiz
Don't call me crazy, I've never been lazy
Curious it is

A touch of excess with a little finesse It's simply luxurious
And if I confess to makin' this mess
Would that make you furious?

But after a while you'll be crackin' a smile And that's when we'll see If I may submit, you'll have to admit You're curious like me

They say that curiosity was responsible For the unfortunate demise of the cat But with 8 more lives to investigate What kind of a deal is that? Not bad

A furious sun can make for serious fun So we won't let that worry us 'Cause the fun is outdone by a barrel of one If that one's the furriest

If curious means that you trade your routines
For somethin' free
The freedom you feel's the whole point of the deal
So curious I'll be

Curiouser and curiouser sir Curious Curious like Curious like me
