Hey, pass the ball Why do you run it in circles? Waves crash the wall Soon enough all your hard work will fail Wait, hold the phone I don't know if I can take this Leave me alone I don't know if I can make this work See, I know I'm lost and lonely Please go slow; I'm one and only I need to think 'Cause now I've got everyone wondering Pass me a drink Last, but not least, and my virtue's gone Lend me a hand I think I could walk if you help me Please understand If I could talk, I would tell you why See, I know I'm lost and lonely Please go slow; I'm one and only Only one All or none My heart's done Weighs a ton

Hold me a while
Tell me you'll never be leaving
I'll walk the mile
Seeing but not quite believing you

See, I know I'm lost and lonely
Please go slow; I'm one and only See, I know I'm lost and lonely (See, I know I'm lost and lonel y) Please go slow; I'm one and only (Please go slow; I'm one and o nly)...
