I'd Have to Be Outa My Mind

Barry McGuire

See the train coming down the tracks
Hear the whistle blowin' too
Packed my bags, took in my tie
Goodbye babe I'm leaving you
You can save your phony tears
There's no use crying
If I stayed with you
I'd have to be out of my mind

Yeah you treated me like your own hand dog
Which wasn't very nice
When I look to you for affection
You just kick me once or twice
Well I can't make the trip
I'm feeling bugged all the time
If I stayed with you
I'd have to be out of my mind

Yeah you say I can't live without you
And one time I thought that was so
You know you had me pretty well faked out baby
But like the wind I'm gonna blow
Ah you can tell your lies to the next guy
[?]
If I stayed with you
I'd have to be out of my mind

All the way I let you hurt me
It was just a crying shame
I don't know how I feel for you
I must have been insane
You know I don't need any glasses
To show me where I've been blind
If I stayed with you
I'd have to be out of my mind
