

I got racks on me
My ex regret she ever left
Now I got stacks on me
Back when I used to cross my eyes, and now I dot my T's
I'm moving up a league
The time I made my mamma cry because she proud me

Talking to Bethany and Angela
Introduced them by accident
I'm living my life as a passenger
I'm a proactive ambassador
When I'm fucked up and I need to get my head straight
She keeps me from cracking em
I don't really know what to do now, might need a medical examiner

Baby act so sorry, why she sorry all the time
Why she call me early morning when she knows she'll get declined
My loves a drug and she's addict only molly on her mind
And she only fucking with me cause the buss is hard to find

Baby act so sorry, why she sorry all the time
Why she call me early morning when she knows she'll get declined
My loves a drug and she's addict only molly on her mind
And she only fucking with me cause the buss is hard to find

She want to whip in the 'rari
Her pallet expensive she love calamari
She know I don't take pics I'm sorry
She hunting me down, she on my safari
I fly her out to Bali, cause baby likes party
Babe always borrow my car key
Loving the white but tonight she in khaki

I got racks on me
My ex regret she ever left
