

Not A Love Song

Bars and Melody

This is not a love song
Oh, but I need you right now
Be the one by my side
This is not a love song
Oh, but I miss you somehow
It's a cold lonely night on my own

Yeah
I lie awake and somehow I see you there
Thinking of all the places that you're taking me, I can't repair
It's crazy, I know, but you want my escape
Because this world is bitter cold and I'm not wanting to wake
I wish my eyes would never open, I will stitch them shut
I wish that we could stay forever still it ain't enough
I can only think of you and even though my heart's ablaze
In my head you are beautiful for there is where you remain

This is not a love song
Oh, but I need you right now (right now)
To be the one by my side
This is not a love song
Oh, but I miss you somehow (somehow)
It's a cold lonely night on my own

Yeah

Yo
Another fabrication of a dream I wish I had
I'm not wanting to wake up but I have to accept the fact
That you're never gonna be here, the perfect one for me
And even though it's hard, I know they're coming to carry me
I sit and wonder what it would be like to have you 'round
What kind of voice that you would have imagined quite a mellow sound
The fondness of my heart is invested into you
But right now the sunset is clouded by the moon

This is not a love song
Oh, but I need you right now (right now, yeah)
To be the one by my side
This is not a love song (not a love song)
Oh, but I miss you somehow
It's a cold lonely night on my own

Yeah

This is not a love song
Oh, but I need you right now
To be the one by my side
This is not a love song
Oh, but I miss you somehow
It's a cold lonely night on my own
