

Russian Model

Bars and Melody

Took a flight out to Japan and I met a Russian model
One week straight we poppin' bottles
Passin' out in hotel lobbies
She told me she like to dance
I said we should go to France
Said I'm sure we'll meet again
Hit me when you land in London

We don't need to see the city seen that all before
Maids best not disturb put the sign outside the door
We just topped a bottle I can see that you want more
Texts from my ex yea it's quarter past four
Quarter past four baby we should hit the door
We won't make it to the bed too wavy we hit the floor
Your accent so cute when you tell me you want more
We don't need no water we got more champagne to pour
