

I'm Your Basscreator

Basshunter

And every once in your life
And every once in your life

„I'm your Bass creator!”

The moment I saw you I was Trance
And the feeling inside was more than I could bare
Baby it's not right if there's no promise land
Because the meter is on and I'm already there
Yeah...

And every once in your life
And every once in your life

And every once in your life
You will feel
Once true moment wo-ho
So baby open your eyes
And feel it, feel it
And every once in your life
You will feel
It coming over wo-ho
So baby open you eyes
And feel it, feel it

„Woah... I'm your base creator”

And every once in your life

„I'm your Base creator”

Aaa... aaa... aa...

„Woah... I'm your base creator”

And every once in your life
You will feel
Once true moment wo-ho
So baby open your eyes
And feel it, feel it
And every once in your life
You will feel
It coming over wo-ho
So baby open you eyes
And feel it, feel it
