

Hello & Welcome Home

Bay City Rollers

Hello hello my love
That was a time to remember
When loving was free and all I could see
Was the love in your eyes
No sign of goodbyes
What could I do, do you

Do you believe in love as the only media
I've been out there on the road for some time now
And I know, I know that I've seen it over again
No woman ever loved me like you do now

Hello and welcome home, you're beautiful
Love you like I always have, do you?
You bring me love so real, you're beautiful
Want you like I always have, and do you?

Again, you're beautiful
Love you like I always have
And do you, do you love me again?

Hello and welcome home
The way I feel tonight I love you
But when you were gone
Like the end of a song
I was fading for you
But all I could do was hold on
I loved you

Was I the one who always did believe in us

I thought of you as someone to confide in
And those nights alone were never something quite like this
'Cause now you're home at last you are deciding

Hello and welcome home, you're beautiful
Love you like I always have, do you?
You bring me love so real, you're beautiful
Want you like I always have, and do you?

Again, you're beautiful
Love you like I always have
And do you, do you love me, do you?
Do you love me again?

Hello and welcome home, you're beautiful
Love you like I always have, do you?
You bring me love so real, you're beautiful
Want you like I always have, and do you again

Hello and welcome home, you're beautiful
Love you like I always have, do you
Hello and welcome home, you're beautiful
Love you like I always have, do you
