

Here Comes That Feeling Again

Bay City Rollers

When you see her, there do you stop and stare,
Does she turn her head and look away,
So you wait a while, then she gives a smile,
But you never know just what to say,

CHORUS

And here it comes, (here it comes)
Here comes that feeling again,
When you just can't seem to show how much you care,
And here it comes, (here it comes)
Here comes that feeling again,
Now you just can't find the words you wanna say,
To find the way.

So you pass her by, do you catch her eye,
Does she see you walkin' on your own,
Then she looks your way, and you start to say,
But the words you never seem to know

CHORUS

And here it comes, (here it comes)
Here comes that feeling again,
When you just can't seem to show how much you care,
And here it comes, (here it comes)
Here comes that feeling again,
Now you just can't find the words you wanna say,
To find the way.

CHORUS

And here it comes, (here it comes)
Here comes that feeling again,
When you just can't seem to show how much you care,
And here it comes, (here it comes)
Here comes that feeling again,
Now you just can't find the words you wanna say,
To find the way.
