

So Far Away

BBMak

When you can't get over
Oh, and you can't move forward
And the nights that you wonder
What if you were right

And as you look for answers
To all the wrong questions
Play it back in your mind
Like you're stuck in rewind again

So I stop and I stare
'Cause the world won't wait
If we're all just looking for something
That we might never find

You're out across the skies
You're so far away
Why you still in my head?
A million reasons why
You're so far away
You're still in my head

So far away
You're still in my head
So far away
Oh, you're still in my head

And if I came to find you
Would you see right through me
Is it part of the plan
Let it slip through my hands again

So I stop and I stare
'Cause the world won't wait
If we're all just looking for something
That we might never find

You're out across the skies
You're so far away
Why you still in my head?
A million reasons why
You're so far away
You're still in my head

So far away
You're still in my head
So far away
Oh, you're still in my head
So far away
You're still in my head
So far away
Oh, you're still in my head

We can be the fire in the fall
So dive in, so dive in
We can be the answer to it all
So dive in, so dive in

You're out across the skies
Why you still in my head?
So why you still in my head?

So far away
So far away
So far away
(Don't you know, don't you know)
So far away
(So far away)

So far away
You're still in my head
So far away
So far away
You're still in my head
(You're still in my head)
So far away
