

We Can Be Lovers

BBMak

I don't know what brought me here tonight
I was looking for a little space
I guess you don't know 'til it's staring you in the face
A lonely silhouette from a broken place
A second chance from the past
But when I look back, we burn bright fade fast

It can't add up to nothing
The clock stopped still, my beating heart
We really started something
Let's go back to the start

We can be lovers
We can be lovers again
We can be lovers
We can be lovers again
Cos we're picking up the pieces
I don't care what she says
Cos we can be lovers
We can be lovers again

Messages in the mirror, it doesn't make sense to me
But we were just kids and we didn't have a plan B
It's never too late to start again, it's only now that I can see
That your the best thing that ever happened to me

It can't add up to nothing
The clock stopped still, my beating heart
We really started something
Let's go back to the start

We can be lovers
We can be lovers again
We can be lovers
We can be lovers again
Cos we're picking up the pieces
I don't care what she says
Cos we can be lovers
We can be lovers again

I can see desire in your eyes
I can feel the fire deep inside
I can be the one if you decide oh

We can be lovers
We can be lovers again
We can be lovers
We can be lovers again
Cos we're picking up the pieces
I don't care what she says
Cos we can be lovers
We can be lovers again
