

Merry Christmas, Baby

Beach Boys

My baby she told me
She don't want to hold me
And kiss my lips anymore

She's gong to leave me
And she don't believe me
That I'll be true now

Maybe she don't love me
I think I know why
But why'd she do it this time of year
She knows I'll miss her
And I want to kiss her
Just for Christmas
Merry Christmas, Baby
Merry Christmas, Baby
Merry Christmas, Baby

Do what I do to really convince you
That I'm not that guy anymore
Take back my ring now
Do anything thing now
But please forgive me

I made my mistake but
I'm willing to wake up
And never mess around anymore
But why did we brake up
There's still time to make up
And just for Christmas

Merry Christmas, Baby
Merry Christmas, Baby
Merry Christmas, Baby

Ohooo Dododoodooo
Ohooo

I made my mistake but
I'm willing to wake up
And never mess around anymore
But why did we brake up
There's still time to make up
But just for Christmas

Merry Christmas, Baby
Merry Christmas, Baby
Merry Christmas, Baby
Merry Christmas Baby
