

Sahara, Pt. II

Bear's Den

All my life,
I wasn't honest enough
and i though i would never get over you
All my life,
I wasn't honest enough
and i though i would never get over you

I'd never get over you.

You said that id always feel alone.
But its the life that I Chose.
You said I could never be happy with anyone.

But I found love.
I found love.
I found love.
I found love.

All my life
I wasn't honest enough.
And I thought I could never get over you.
All my life
I wasn't honest enough
And I though I would never get over you.

But I found love.
But I found love.
But I found love.
But I found love.
