Beckah Shae

Open up your eyes
It's a new day it's a new day rising
Can you hear the mercy, mercy calling
Open up your heart
There's a new way there's a new way
Crying out for you to follow
Don't ever be afraid to go where
You know that you should be
Know there's no better life, than this one here,
Right where you believe
Go to the unknown, cause you're a Pioneer
Take the lead and see, that you're a Pioneer
Listen for the freedom
It's always there it's always there waiting
For you to enjoy it, so go ahead, enjoy it
Listen for your destiny
It's never too far, it's never too far away
It's always right where love meets your faith
You'll be the first one,
You'll be the champion,
You'll be the risk taker, the creator
Of something fun,
You'll make the discovery,
Find what's on the other side and see
You'll be all they wanna be Cause you'll be living your dreams
