They're out there They ain't fair They watch you They'll hurt you They don't care They'll hate you They'll rob you They'll try to Be your closest friend But if you let them in (Don't, don't do it) You'll find yourself more lost Than you've ever been Be wise and see through it Behold, if you gain the whole world and lose your soul, you lose it all Behold we've been sent out like sheep amongst wolves, so don't be fooled So watch out! You better be prepared or lose it all if you fall Stay pure and you'll get through it, Them wolves! Ain't playin fair so don't you go there Know whose you are don't compromise and you'll be alright Be wise! Just remember who is on your side You're not far from the win if you just guard your heart So be shrewd as a serpent and as innocent as doves They'll mock you and accuse you Then ignore you Like you ain't ever been there They smile at you Then criticize you Even pretend To be love, if you let them in Don't, don't do it You'll find yourself more lost than you've ever been Be wise and see through it They might think you're a fool cause your success don't look the same But they don't know that while you're weak the mighty One is on His way As gentle as a feather and as sharp as a sword be sharp as a sword And brave like the wolves
