

One Man Parade

Becoming the Archetype

Behold the man without strength
The strongest man that ever lived
Behold the end of all things
The end of all things just beginning
The weak are marching on with one objective
Take back the times
These days are evil
No one can stop them
The dead rise up to praise You
Your love goes far beyond the grave
It's life or death
Now make your choice
Whose side are you on?
The weak are marching on
With one objective
Take back the times
These days are evil
No one can stop them
No one can stop them
