

Remembrance

Before the Dawn

Defiance towards
The passing time and its speeding course
Lifeblood has been bled
Of the days I lived, I erased

Footprints behind me
Covered by sands of time
Like I was never there

Marks I drew on the canvas of life
Gone like I was never there

None existence or false
Misleading memories
Thoughts forsaken, forlorn
Darkness descends
Of the days I lived, I erased
