

Close Your Eyes, It's Okay To Rest Now

Before Their Eyes

I've lost you somewhere in forever
So lets start this all over
Because all of this seems so familiar
Like the darkness that hides my past
Like the knife you stuck into my back

And this time it feels so right
Lets set the tone tonight
Somehow I've found home
Somehow I've found home again

I might seem lifeless
But I'm not dead
Help me pick up the pieces
So I can find you again

Close your eyes, it's okay to rest now

Somehow I've found home
Somehow I've found home again
