

Surrender

Before Their Eyes

We just can't seem to find our way
We are the broken
We are the broken

(Whoa, oh, oh)
(Whoa, oh, oh)

We've gone off course
Wash off this poison, we're done wishing
Follow our hearts
But they've been beating different patterns
If we surrender
Have we lost our inner battles
Bend back and forth
Find a way out

(Oh, oh, oh)
(We are the broken)
(Oh, oh, oh)
(You are the chosen)

We just can't seem to find our way
We are the broken
We are the broken
Help us to find a better way
We are the broken
You are the chosen
Won't you please show us the way back home

When I step forward
Why does it feel like two steps back
We're always sinking
Seems so cold it's never cracked

I think we lost it
All hope we've had locked within
The path we've chosen
Leads us to a bitter end

(Oh, oh, oh)
(Leads us to a bitter end)
(Bitter end)
(Oh, oh, ooh)
(The path we've chosen)

We just can't seem to find our way
We are the broken
We are the broken
Help us to find a better way
We are the broken
You are the chosen
Won't you please show us the way back home

We've walked the bridge and
This is to call you out
Your fight is now
Show us the way out
