

Paperweight

Bella Thorne

'Cause you got my heart weighted down
like a paperweight
Like a paperweight, like a paperweight

I sat inside that restaurant all by myself
I thought you'd come,
Couldn't hide behind my darkest shades And all people walking by were starrng at the lonely one And wondering who made her cry that way

My heart is black and blue,
I don't want no one but you,
No one but you, oh
No one but you, oh
Keeps me like captive, oh
Keeps me like captive, oh

like a paperweight
And I'm a fool I love the one,
the one that I should hate You got my heart weighted down
like a paperweight
Like a paperweight, like a paperweight

I really thought that your goodbye it's only just goodbye for now, But you're not here, I guess the joke's on me Try too hard to walk away but I can barely turn around, This sidewalk feels like quakes underneath my feet

My heart is black and blue,
I don't want no one but you,
No one but you, oh
No one but you, oh
Keeps me like captive, oh
Keeps me like captive, oh

like a paperweight
And I'm a fool I love the one,
the one that I should hate
You got my heart weighted down
like a paperweight
Like a paperweight, like a paperweight

Why can not let me let go Why can not let me let go oh oh oh
Why can not let me let go

like a paperweight
And I'm a fool I love the one,

the one that I should hate
like a paperweight

like a paperweight
And I'm a fool I love the one,
like a paperweight
Like a paperweight, like a paperweight

(No one but you, oh
No one but you, oh
Keeps me like captive)
