

Illusion

Belligerence

Like a thoughts on your mind
Dissaranged, one
Never
Trying to crush'em to pieces

Fix it, right now
Leave it, right here
Repeat it, still in circles

I know, it's holding me
Need no chains,
Walls, no iron bars
Only your mind is so important

Who pointed the finger to me
Just empty reality
Who to choose
Any purpose with you

Remember, the second is a minute
Waiting to life goes by
Is that what you want
Whatever you wish

Fix it, right now
Leave it, right here
Repeat it, still in circles

Was it all worth it?
Nooooooooooo ...
What I've done for you?
Just an illusion ...
Does it make you happier?
Nooooooooooo ...
Can you escape?
It's your destiny ...

Like a thoughts in your head
Chaos, false composure
Product of reality illusion

Fix it, right now
Leave it, right here
Repeat it, still in circles
