

Steven's Last Night in Town

Ben Folds Five

Everyone gather round now sing him a song
just in case by tomorrow
it happens he's gone
For two weeks and seven days
Our fair foreign friend
I have this feeling
We might never see Steven again
We thought he was gone
But he's come back again
Last week it was funny Not the jokes wearing thin everyone knows now
That every night now
Will be Steven's last night in town

He's charmed everyone here
Except for Tamara Easter
Who later revealed to him
Her innermost secrets Won us over with stories About Linda McCartney Lost points with the ladies For saying he couldn't love a woman with cellulite

We were talking bout something seems like was funny Then Steven got quiet
I think Steven was mad
Maybe he wasn't mad
But we felt really strange for a moment then the moment was gone and forgotten
