

Cry No More

Beres Hammond

Well, well, well, well, well, well, well
Well, well, well
No more, no more, no more, no more
No more, no more
Ain't gonna cry no more, I've shed my last tear
No more worrying about what tomorrow brings
I'm gonna live today the best way I know how
And from now on that's how it's gonna be
I won't sweat myself or worry about
What I can't have, I'll have to live without
Take my chances just this once
My mind speed up, I won't settle for crumbs
Follow my heart wherever it leads
Yes, yes, oh, oh, oh, how it leads, yeah
My heart's been broken, now eyes are open
I'm not that same little man I used to be, no, no
My life won't be like that anymore
Yes, I'm riding through right now, I'm sure, oh yes, I'm sure
Ain't gonna cry no more, did what I had to do, yes
Gave it my shot now look at what I got, yeah
Now they've taken my love for weakness
Left in my mouth this bitterness
I used to be angry, surprisingly I'm not
I'm gonna face everything with a different approach
Somebody else better carry the torch
I decided for certain, now I'm gonna drop that curtain
'Cause I wanna live, yes, just wanna live, yes
I just got to be free, yeah, got to be free, yeah
My heart's been broken, now eyes are open
I'm not that same little man I used to be, no, no
My life won't be like that anymore
Yes, I'm riding through right now, I'm sure, oh yes, I'm sure
Ain't gonna cry no more, I've shed my last tear
No more worrying about what tomorrow be
I'm gonna live today the best way I know how
And from now on that's how it's gonna be, yes
Won't sweat myself or worry about
What I can't have, I'll have to live without
Take my chances just this once
Mind speed up, I won't settle for crumbs
Heart's been broken, now eyes are open
I'm not that same little man I used to be, no, no, no, no
My life won't be like that anymore
Yes, I'm riding through right now, I'm sure, oh yes, I'm sure
