

I'd Do It Again If I Could

Bernard Butler

You and I've got something caught between our eyes
A figure of fun and a teller of lies
You and I need nothing more to taint our lives
Would I do it to you? Well I'll do it this time

I'd do it again if I could
I'd do it again if you told me I should
I'd do it again for you my love
Follow me and I'll do it again

You and I feel nothing - we're anaesthetised
When you've got no shame you've got nothing to hide
Just one click of your heels and I'd lend you my soul
Would I do it for you? Well I do what I'm told

I'd do it again if I could
I'd do it again if you told me I should
I'd do it again for you my love
Follow me and I'll do it again
