

Sooner or Later

Bernard Fanning

So with your broken wing
Where would you fly to?
What about pain?
You're blowing about in the wind, flying in circles
Now you sleep without end
Valleys and meadows echo your name
And I'll pretend I don't miss our [?]

To flesh and blood
Truth and love
Never be withdrawn
Disappear so quick
Ragged heart it collapses [?]
Reunited far beyond

Sooner or later gonna run out of road
Have all your weapons and soldiers in a row
Sooner or later when the cracks begin to show
Suggest you just keep running on

Let the years go by let your mind be clear
With unwilling eyes I'd watch you disappear
With you wings repaired now your flying free
I know what you gave will always stay with me

Flesh and blood
Truth and love
Never be withdrawn
Disappear so quick
Ragged heart it collapses [?]
Reunited far beyond

Sooner or later gonna run out of road
Lay down your weapons and soldiers in a row
Sooner or later when the cracks begin to show
Suggest you just keep...
I'll suggest you just keep running on
